

KEN CANION

RELATIONSHIP SPECIALIST

MEDIA INQUIRIES | KENCANION@GMAIL.COM

THE GRAND CANIONS

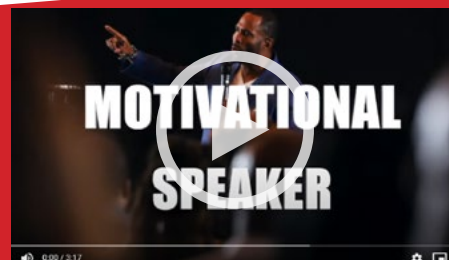

Personal Development & Relationship Coach

Ken Canion

Ken has been transforming people's lives for over 20 years. He is personal development specialist and relationship coach who specializes in human behavior. In his coaching, he helps couples resolve conflicts and build dynamic cultures. His techniques help single people create deeper love for themselves which allows them to connect with others on a deeper level.

Through his real world strategies, he teaches relevant skills that help people manage their relationship more successfully and cultivate more intimacy and authenticity.

For two decades, he has devoted himself to transforming people's lives from the inside out. Because of his books, seminars, or social media, Ken is known as a transformation specialist. He is author of eight books.

The Grand Canions...Relationship Specialists

Ken Canion and his wife Karen Canion started coaching couples as a result of their relationship teetering on the brink of divorce. Their desire to help couples with conflict resolution was sparked 14 years ago when their marriage almost ended. During this time, they developed a conflict resolution system that not only helped their relationship survive, but thrive.

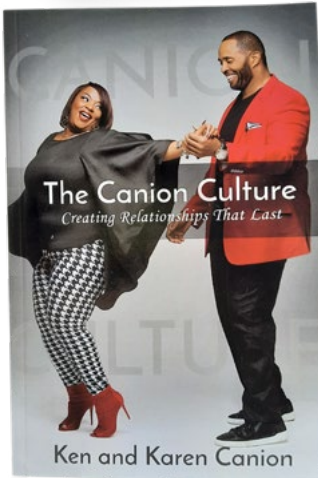

The Grand Canions work together to help couples resolve conflict so they can create more fulfilling relationships. They are raw, real, and relatable.

They are candid, straightforward, and hilarious in their approach to dealing with the ethical dilemmas of modern day relationships. Their goal is to stimulate candid conversations and critical thinking. In the other words, they focus on the hard stuff!

When you have two people with different personalities, backgrounds, expectations, and styles of communication, there is going to be conflict. Even though one may start out with the best intentions, it could end badly if people aren't equipped with the right knowledge and tools.

The Grand Canions want to provide singles and couples with those tools to navigate the complexities of modern day relationships.

The Canion Culture is a relationship blueprint created by Ken and Karen Canion.

It gives couples and singles a road map on how to create a fantastic cultures in their relationships.

It is a unique perspective that illustrates how companies create successful cultures and how relationships can use the principles to do the same.

The moment of truth classic game

The moment of truth is a fun and revealing card game that focuses on ethical dilemmas in relationships. It stimulates candid conversation and critical thinking.

Whether it's a couples night out or singles trying to get to know each other, The moment of truth game will render hours of competitive fun.

The moment of Truth Sexctasy game

This is a follow-up to the wildly popular classic Moment Of Truth relationship card game. This game focuses on sexual dilemmas in relationships. It stimulates candid conversation and critical thinking. It creates an opportunity to ask serious questions in a fun way.